

Solaris Oilfield Infrastructure Issues Operational Update And Schedules Fourth Quarter And Full Year 2020 Results Conference Call

January 19, 2021

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Solaris Oilfield Infrastructure, Inc. (NYSE:SOI) ("Solaris" or the "Company") announced today it expects its fully utilized proppant silo system count in the fourth quarter of 2020 to increase 20-25% from third quarter 2020. This compares to the Company's previous expectation for a flat to modestly higher level of activity.

"We are encouraged by the stronger than expected rebound in completion activity and our system deployments in the fourth quarter," Solaris' Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Bill Zartler commented. "Activity in January is currently slightly higher than the fourth quarter average as activity remains strong. While visibility for the remainder of the year is limited, we remain focused on driving innovation, providing differentiated service and maximizing cash flow."
